

YACHTING ASSOCIATION OF INDIA
RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SELECTION COMMITTEE
NATIONAL SQUAD UPTO 30 JUN 2015

1. During the YAI Council meeting held on 13 Oct 2014, the Chairman SPDC had proposed implementation of a four year “Development Plan” aimed at winning many more medals for India at the Asian Games 2018. This plan was approved by the YAI Council. The plan is based on following:-

- (a) Ensuring continuity of training, coaching and administration.
- (b) Ensuring continued overseas training and competition support to sailors who had demonstrated talent, commitment and parental/family support in order to succeed.
- (c) Based on current participants and assessment of potential medal winners, 49er, 49er FX, Laser (Radial), 29er, Optimist (Boys and Girls), have been classified as ‘focus’ classes.
- (d) All other classes of boats and windsurfs sailed in the country have been classified as ‘Development’.
- (e) A six monthly review of status of the yachtspersons in “focus” and “development” classes based on technical competence of the competitors and their having achieved a minimum of top 60% finish at a major International regatta will be undertaken.
